A WORD

Regarding Preparations for Easter.

So long as beautiful woman takes pride in her apparel; so long as art, genius and skill are devoted to beauty-work for women; so long as the charm of beauty shall endure, women and men who admire them will take supreme interest in spring dresses. First, because of the art and beauty expressed in the dresses themselves; second, because of their charm and becomingness to the women who wear them.

And This Week is An Important One

In the calendar of spring and Easter preparation for tomorrow we present to public view, first a lavish display of the most charming models that the skillful and ingenious designers of the East have produced.

The development of fashion is a constantly progressive evolution beauty-ward. It seems trite to say now, as we have perhaps said before, that the present season's styles are more charming, more artistic, more beautiful than ever before, and the fact is abundantly illustrated by the ready-to-wear suits on exhibition tomorrow.

The public is invited to view the splendid opening display at Kaufman, Straus & Co.

12 and 14 West Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

Does This Fit You?

An exchange prints the following story:

"A subscriber once got a dun through the postoffice and it made him mad. He went to see the editor about it, and the editor showed him some of his own—one for paper, one for coal, others for wood, groceries, milk, feed, dry goods, milk, bread and several others."

"Now," said the patient editor, "I didn't get mad when these came, because I knew all I had to do was to ask several reliable men like you to come in and help out, and then I could settle all of them."

"When the subscriber saw how it was he was relieved and reined. 'Moral—Never get vexed when asked to pay what you owe, for the other fellow may need the money.'"

A Giant.

Mr. Camille Hugo, who is said to be the tallest man alive, has arrived in New York from Paris, France. Hugo is eight feet two inches high, weighs 569 pounds, has a chest measurement of 203 inches, is nearly four feet from one shoulder's end to the other, wears a size twenty-four inches in length and walks as erect as a French grenadier. He is several inches taller than Chang, the Chinese giant.

W. P. Dickinson, of Chicago, who was accused of embezzling from the Boone Valley Coal Company, of which he was an officer, has used Hamilton Browne, a stockholder, for $10,000 damages.

From Abroad.

LETTER VI.

MALTA, FEB. 25, 1903.

Dear Judge:—At the breakfast table as the ship crested starboard I saw through a porthole the cliff-bound shores of Malta, the largest of the Maltese group of islands. Yozo, another of the group, we passed last night without hearing any Sirene songs that enticed ancient travelers, and of whom Homer sang.

Malta is one vast solid rock 174 by 91 miles, covered by a very fertile soil, mostly by artificial means, much of it having been brought in ships from Palestine and the islands of the Mediterranean. Its ninety square miles support the densest population on the globe—2,000 to the square mile. The people, largely of Arabic origin, are industrious, frugal, cheerful and religious. It's history is lost in the impenetrable mists of antiquity. Egyptians, Phenicians, Romans, Greeks, Vandals, Arabs, Crusaders, Knights of St. John, French and English have successively fought on the island. Since 1799 the English have had undisturbed possession.

Perhaps it is now protected by the most elaborate fortifications on earth, manned constantly by 11,000 British troops, and the rendezvous of the mightiest navy that ever sailed the sea.

An hour before dropping anchor in the harbor of Valetta—the capital—we crossed the track of Paul's doomed ship. Upon landing, Dr. Buckner and I disentangled ourselves from the struggling mob of 400 tourists, hired a carriage and drove on a perfect road through a romantic country of terraced green gardens—called farms—91 miles to St. Paul's Bay on the north-west corner of the island. There we took a rowboat and crossed the bay to the spot where stands a chapel and a monument surmounted by a colossal statue of Paul, erected on the spot where he landed from the wreck. The little chapel marks the spot where the kindly natives kindled the fire to warm the shivering strangers. Here Paul shook the viper from his unhurt hand. Read Acts, xxvii and xxviii.

In a few days not an island was found on the island, for every one from the father of Publius to the smallest child, had felt the healing touch of the great Apostle. From that time until this hour, Paul's Master has been Lord of the islanders. This visit of Paul and the deeds of the heroic knights of Malta have given its history a deathless interest.

The Knights: About 1043 A. D., some Maltese Carthaginians obtained permission to build in Jerusalem a house for Christian pilgrims, to which, afterwards they added a hospital that gave them the title of Hospitallers. In 1204 they were the original bill signed by Pope Paschal 1213 by which these charitable and chivalrous men were confirmed as a military order.

These grand men were the most knightly knights that ever wore a plume or unsheathed a sword. Alone for years they withstood, under the banner of the cross, the awful onset of Saracen and Turk. They finally found a home in the island of Rhodes which they held for 200 years against the incessant assaults of the Turks, until one of the greatest of the Sultans with a vast fleet landed 200,000 soldiers, the flower of his army, and began a six months siege against the little group of 6,000 soldier-priests. 160,000 Turks perished in the siege, one knight alone having slain 600 Turks with his own valiant sword. At last the Sultan offering them most favorable terms to get them out of Rhodes, they sounded the retreat on a trumpet now laid away in a glass case in the palace of the Grand Masters of the order, where I inspected it two hours ago; and in the same museum I read the signature of Charles V to a deed dated 1530 granting Malta to the homeless Knights on condition that they should hold it against the Turks and Algerian pirates. The Turks and pirates combined in an attack against them with a force of 138 warships and 40,000 soldiers.

Perseverent and desperate assaults were repulsed repeatedly under the intrepid and venerable Grand Master, Lavallette, who, though 70 years old, was always in the thickest of the fight. The Turks lost 25,000 men and retired forever from the island, leaving vast military stores and their dead leader in the hands of the Knights. The capital is named Valletta from the grand old Grand Master, who laid the foundation of the city 1566.

The pride and crowning glory of the city is the rich and magnificent church of St. John, surpassing in interest to me anything in Europe. The floor itself with its Mosaic memorial tablets of 400 Knights, pictured with artistic symbols all replete with thrilling history and eloquent with chivalrous deeds, dazzles the memory and thrills the thought.

More of Malta I cannot write now without overloading this letter with facts and figures that crowd and jam one another for preface on this epistolary train. W. T. Tinsie.

A Drinking Fountain.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. began planning for the erection of a fountain several months ago, but serious illness in the homes of some of the members hindered for a time. Other enterprising cities have such fountains, and we should not be lacking in such humane enterprises. It is not only a convenience but a necessity. It should commend itself to our business men to make provision for the comfort of those who come to trade and do business in our city, some have already given assurance of encouragement and financial support. Among them we are glad to mention the name of the late Capt. P. T. Martin, who in his life time promised a donation and made provision for it in his will. It is desired that this shall be in the true sense a popular enterprise by the people and for the people. Let all have a part, men, women and children, and the dimes of the children may have a place as well as the dollars of men and women. It is hoped to make this fountain "a thing of beauty" and an ornament, as well as an act of charity; and it our desire that it shall be an object lesson, teaching greater kindness to our uncomplaining friends, the dumb animals, and more consideration for their comfort. It is our purpose to press the enterprise in order that it may be completed before the coming of the heat and dust of summer. Let the good work be encouraged. Contributions will be gratefully received by any of the ladies named herewith: Mesdames H. D. Clark, T. F. Rogers, Charles Oldham, B. F. Thomson, or Geo. W. Bald.

New Orleans citizens have issued a statement that there is no foundation for the report that New Orleans is in danger from the Mississippi. It is asserted that the city has not been in any risk for twenty-five years.

The State has made the first purchase of State bonds in which the sale was confirmed. The price is 102½ and interest.

COL. NALL WILL NOT RUN.

Says His Information From Farming Element All Over the State

Is That Hubert Vreeland Will Be Nominated By a Big Vote For Commissioner of Agriculture.

Col. Ion B. Nall, State Commissioner of Agriculture, who for thirty years has been one of the foremost agriculturists in the State, and who is conceded to be one of the most thoroughly posted men as to farming interests in Kentucky, has announced to his friends that at the expiration of his present term of office he will return to his old home to live. Under the constitution he is not eligible for reelection, and will return to private life. Col. Nall has organized more farmers' institutes than any other Commissioner the State ever had, and he had been one of the leaders in the good roads movement.

Col. Nall, in an interview last week, said he was taking no active part in the selection of his successor, as that was a duty which devolved upon the Democratic farmers of the State, but when asked for his opinion on the race he said personally he was going to vote for Hubert Vreeland because he believed him to be not only the best qualified, but by far a more aggressive man than the others, and by reason of his experience as assistant in charge of the office would not have to consume his time learning the routine, and would be in a better position next winter to secure favorable legislation for the farmers such as good roads and many other things that are needed; with all of which he is thoroughly conversant. Col. Nall said that from what he could hear from the farmers and others with whom he came in contact, there was not the slightest doubt in his mind about the nomination of Mr. Vreeland by one of the largest majorities that would be received in any of the races for the State offices.

Returned Soldier Badly Hurt.

Harvey Utley, formerly of this city, was run over by a train, a short time since in Missouri, and both legs were severed from the body. For four years past he has been stationed in the Philippine Islands. He was in numerous skirmishes and his life was always in jeopardy, but he lived through it all, not being wounded, and was on his way home when the terrible accident befell him.—[Paris Gazette.]

John Mitchell, President of the Mineworkers, in a speech at Huntington, declared that he has faith in the inherent goodness of man, and that conference of capital and labor will end strikes.

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

At Frenchburg—Asked to Become a Candidate for the Legislature.

SOME VIEWS ON TEMPERANCE.

On Monday morning, March 23, we went to Frenchburg to attend Circuit Court. We went from Rothwell in a hack, but walked up the mountain, prompted largely by mercy toward the team. The roads through the mountains are now very bad—in places dangerous. We advise the traveling public to go horseback or to walk. We were entertained in the private family of J. H. Williams. He is not accustomed to take boarders, but Judge Cooper and I were favored. Our stay was pleasant and we fared sumptuously.

The attendance at court was small. There were no criminal cases to be tried. There were a few cases of concealed weapons, taking whiskey from a man's pocket, shooting at a dog and selling without license, etc.

We are pleased to testify that from Monday 11 o'clock to Wednesday afternoon we saw no drunk or apparently drinking men. We presume there was a bottle here and there for the initiated, but Menefee county has no licensed saloon to contribute to her shame and poverty and to increase a criminal docket. We wish we could say the same for Montgomery county.

Perhaps men will afterwards realize that to their fellow men, and then quit the whiskey business. How can a man rest easy when he knows that this business is a damnation?

We take this opportunity to say that we have recently been invited by the proper officials to make the race for the Legislature on the Prohibition ticket in the district composed of the counties of Montgomery and Menefee.

For 26 years we have been a total abstainer and with voice and pen used our influence in behalf of temperance. Other men are entitled to their views, as we are to ours. Whatever privilege we (as a Christian) have to use intoxicants we prefer to deny ourselves for the good our example may have on others. We would rejoice to know that every man in this district who claims to be a follower of the Christ would decline to enter a saloon for the purpose of drinking, would refuse to drink intoxicants (unless upon recommendation of a doctor) and would do something to create a public spirit, fraught with love, against the manufacture, sale and use of such beverages.

"Yes," some one will say, "of course he, a preacher, will oppose the business." We ask, what about a business man, a newspaper man standing in opposition to the traffic? We took such a "cranky" stand when a lad, and have had no occasion to regret it, and judging from what we know will entertain such views when our second childhood comes.

We regret that "the powers that be" in Mt. Sterling, Montgomery county, State of Kentucky and the U. S. are in sympathy with and a patron of the lucrative business. We spent Monday night with the family of Jno. W. Cravens, Democratic nominee for the Legislature. During this week there will be changes of residents.

Vincent Back moves to the Rev. J. B. Greenwade property at Jeffersonville (Rev. G. goes West); Laura Ross has bought a farm near Salt Lick from Mr. Crouch; Sheriff Ed Cope and his brother,

Jno., have bought the Vincel Back farm; Lewis Back sold his farm to Die Gullett and goes to the farm of Judge Osborn below town; John C. Day moves to the Big Woods; Garrett Lawson went there last week; Joe Ledford, of Red River, moves to Mrs. Robert Trimble's farm on Spencer.

W. H. Kesh who has been at Fort Russell, Wyoming, for a year, left for San Francisco on March 20, enroute to the Philippines.

Sam Amyx, who has been in feeble health at Lexington for some months, died in that city on Tuesday March 24. He was a member of Beaver Lodge 505 F. and A. M. and was buried by the fraternity at the Willis graveyard Wednesday at 3 o'clock. His wife is a daughter of Mrs. Wm. Rothwell. She with two children survive him.

Boks.—Wednesday, morning, March 25, 1903, to Jailor E. D. Hackney and wife, a daughter.

J. J. Dennis and family, of Menefee, who moved to Muskegon, I. T., four weeks ago are much dissatisfied and will at once go to Mo.

The L. O. O. F. lodge at Frenchburg on Tuesday night was preparing for a trip to Maytown. (See account of Organization in another column.) As we sat in their hall before the meeting was convened, we heard a chain rattle. Before we thought what would happen, that chain was around us. We did not think that we were among snakes or that the devil had us, but presumed that this is one of the mysteries of the order for initiates.

We telephoned an account of the organization of Menefee Deposit Bank for our last issue. The Cashier, Mr. H. L. Wallace, is from Paintlick (not Paintsville) Ky. The institution expects to open for business about June 1st.

A. J. Ringo, paymaster for the Confederacy was in town on Wednesday with a roll of Confederate money. B. F. Day was the only veteran whom we saw receive his pay. We received a $10—not because we had died and died, but probably as a sympathizer.

Joe C. Lykins, of Wolfe, was in town on Wednesday.

John C. Wood was "whooping up the boys" in his race for Railroad Commissioner. After May 9th, we will know whether he or another will oppose a Democrat.

The lawyers from this city were B. F. Day and R. H. Winn.

Lon Horvemale represented the Commonwealth until the attorney, Wm. Young, came.

Sam Greenwade, Wm. Siedel, J. K. Bates, J. B. Greenwade, Jno. Roberts and others from this county were there.

Sam Greenwade sold for $250 the lot and two-story frame store (recently occupied by somebody) to the Menefee Deposit Bank.

Since our last visit Marion Powers has embarked in the grocery trade.

The Big Woods seems to be attracting attention of teamsters, etc., around McCauley.

H. R. French, Stamper Bros., and Mrs. Helwig attended the burial of Mr. Amyx, and were passengers to Mt. Sterling with Jno. C. Wood and the writer.

Capt. Beckham to Wed.

It is reported that Capt. Yulee Beckham, of Chicago, is to wed, in a short time, Miss Wilcox, of Savannah, Ga. The bride elect is one of the South's most beautiful and accomplished daughters. Capt. Beckham is a son of Mrs. Julia Beckham, of Hardstown, and a brother of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham.

A Rockport family, after narrowly escaping from their burning home, found themselves out off by high water and almost froze to death in their night clothes.

COMMENDABLE.

In another column in this issue is an article from the W. C. T. U. organization relative to adding to the fund provided by the late T. P. Martin for the purpose of putting in a public fountain where both man and beast may drink of pure water free of any charge. This step is commendable on the part of our good women and doubtless will meet with the encouragement from our business men it so richly deserves.

It will be an ornament, an advertisement of our liberality and our thoughtfulness. It may be there are many persons who would delight to give aid to this movement. Their attention is directed to the article.

STOP IT.

We would respectfully call the attention of the Mayor, Chief of Police and his deputies to the drunken, profane and vulgar toughs who congregate on Main street east of Walsh Bros. corner. Gentlemen, how much longer must the respectable people who pass through that quarter submit to such?

If such assembly and conduct can not be broken up by admonition and warning, we suggest that more severe measures be adopted. It is an offense to modest and refined women and to gentlemen, is a disgrace to our own town and a reflection upon the "powers that be" who are supposed to have jurisdiction over such matters. We give facts and some observations.

APPROPRIATE.

April 7th the Fiscal Courts of the State will be in session and the committee in charge for the raising of funds for a Kentucky Exhibit at the World's Fair are expecting liberal appropriations. It is to be hoped each county will do its duty and we feel it is unnecessary to say a word to our court along this line, for well do they know of the Kentucky resources in need of advertising and that this is the cheapest and best way to get before the eyes of capitalists. We have no fears concerning the action of the Montgomery Fiscal Court; they will authorize our part.

THANK YOU.

The editor of the ADVOCATE takes this method to thank Mr. Jones for the nice present of glasses. We have had our eyes examined by experts, have had prescriptions filled by those of the highest reputation, but none have done us better service than has Mr. John W. Jones, and why should they? His stock is equal to the best and his facilities for testing and fitting eyes are unsurpassed, and he is a graduate of the best schools the same as they are.

One patient was in Louisville where his eyes were tested and a prescription was given for glasses. The patient brought the prescription to Mr. Jones who gave him a perfect fit and saved him $4 on a purchase of $12.

No Wonder the Growers are Organizing.
For the year ending December 31, 1902, the net profits of the American Tobacco Company were $7,450,000; of the Continental Tobacco Company $1,777,000; of the Consolidated Tobacco Company $13,000,000, making an all-told net profit of $32,228,000 diverted from the pockets of the tobacco raisers to the coffers of the trusts. It figures such as these fail to arouse producers, then nothing short of Gabriel's horn will stir them to action.—Glasgow Times.

Physicians Organize.
The physicians of Rowan county organized a medical association with the following officers: F. M. Carter, president; I. H. Robbins, vice president; J. Wilson, secretary. Dr. L. P. V. Williams was elected delegate to the State convention.

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

On Thursday the writer went to Olive Hill. On the train were R. A. Chiles, of this city and J. W. Riley, of Morehead, going to Olive Hill in connection with the bankruptcy proceedings of the People's Cooperative Company under the management of U. S. G. Tabor.

Neither of these gentlemen gave us any information concerning the business, but so far as we heard in town, the impression is that the throwing of the company into bankruptcy was unnecessary and would be injurious to the firm.

For more than a week the two large fire brick plants had been practically at a stand still because of a strike. We were informed that about 400 persons are idle. Did not learn amount of weekly pay role.

The contention appears to be over recognition of the Union. What the result will be, time will reveal. One thing is sure and that is that several hundred dollars in wages are being lost daily, and trade in the stores is light, and of course the plants are delayed in filling orders.

Considerable excitement had prevailed in the town for several days. On Friday, March 20, Mrs. L. C. Wilson, wife of the postmaster and merchant, who had been somewhat complaining suddenly grew worse—the symptoms indicating poison with arsenic. Suspicion rested on Mrs. Maria Ferguson who was boarding with the family, for it was learned that on a certain day she had purchased an arsenical preparation, and had administered it to the sick woman.

Mrs. Ferguson was arrested on Tuesday and was under guard at the hotel when we were there Friday night. Awaiting the result of Mrs. Wilson's sickness the trial had been postponed. The condition of the sick woman was said to be serious. We were informed that Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are both highly respected and that no improbability is attributed to either which would give rise to this mysterious affair. We returned home on Saturday morning.

While gone we heard comments by Democrats concerning the Beckham eligibility. Court of Appeals decision, etc. A prominent Democrat voiced the sentiment that the decision was adverse to Gov. Beckham and that for the best interests of the party and the people the Governor should withdraw from the race. To this we agree.

For Sale.

T. K. Barnes offers his beautiful suburban home for sale privately. A rare opportunity is this for a fine investment. The house is a two story modern brick, spacious halls, well proportioned rooms, dry basements, gas and electric lights, water, bath rooms and ever needed convenience. Beautiful shade, drives, flower beds, rich gardens, small and large fruit orchards, cow pasture, stables, carriage house. In short, this is one of the most desirable and complete pieces of property in the city. The plot contains nine acres and is located on Maysville, one of our most popular streets. 24-1f

Vegetation.

During the past week all kinds of vegetation have made rapid growth; blue grass is especially noticeable, flowers are blooming, buds are swelling, some trees are green, and some fruit trees had begun to bloom last Saturday.

There was frost two mornings last week, with rain early on Monday.

Another $30,000 for Lorenz.

Prof. Adolph Lorenz, who earned a fee of $30,000 by coming to Chicago from Vienna in October last and resetting the right leg of little Lolita Armour, will return here about April 15 to take off the plaster of paris cast, and release the long imprisoned limb.

The Armours await with impatience the return of the great surgeon, whose second trip to this continent within six months will cost another $30,000 fee—or more than $1,000 a day for the entire time of the voyage.

"In six months," said the learned professor, after he had performed the wonderful task that had upset all the theories of the surgery of the knife, "in six months the case may be taken off as 'the limb will be like that of any healthy child.'"

The six months have nearly passed. Little Lolita has gained strength and spirits. The congenital cripple has become a lively little girl, awaiting only that final release from the coat of mail to become like other children of her age.

When, after two hours of wondrously skillful manipulation, Prof. Lorenz put back into its socket the bone that had so long been out of place, doctors all over the world admitted that the learned man of science had made good his most daring theories, and the millionaire father of the child gladly paid one of the largest fees on record.

Every prediction of the professor as to the child's improvement has been fulfilled. Any skilled surgeon could now, it is admitted, release from its plaster of paris prison the long fettered limb, but J. Ogden Armour, father of the little patient, will spare no expense to make the cure thorough.

If any further treatment is needed Dr. Lorenz's practice abroad will be sufficient until Lolita Armour's leg is beyond question.

That she is the grand-daughter of Philip D. Armour. She spent the first months of her life in an incubator, and her childhood—she is not yet six years old—has been saddened by the affliction of hip disease, which has responded to no treatment but that of the great Vienna scientist.

Prof. Lorenz's last visit to this country was made memorable by the wonderful operations he performed gratis upon the children of the poor.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

$36,500 Loss—Good Work By Fire Department.

Water Pressure All That Could Be Wanted.

It was near 1.30 o'clock Sunday morning when a fire alarm was turned in. The company responded promptly to the call, finding the three-story building of I. F. Tabb, South Mayaville street, on fire. A tramp had seen a small light in the rear of the building grow into a large flame in a moment and gave the alarm. The cause of the fire is only a supposition. It is possible a cigar stub may have been dropped on the floor, a match may have been lighted by a rat or maybe a thoughtless boy dropped a cigarette, a match from the outside through a crack coming in contact with inflammable material. It is not thought to have been the work of an incendiary. The fine building known as the Commercial Club Building was soon a total loss, and corn, seed, hay, tobacco, bluegrass seed, flour, meal, etc., went up in smoke from the destroying element. Mr. Tabb's losses will aggregate about $30,000, with insurance in Hoffman agency amounting to $15,000. The Opera House walls are badly sprung and cracked and the architects are of the opinion that it will be necessary for the wall adjoining the Tabb building to come down. In this event the damage will reach over $100,000.

In the Hustle.

Sunday morning the business house and entire stock of I. F. Tabb was a total loss from fire and to the ordinary man it would have been a business suspension for a while, but not so with Mr. Tabb, for by Monday morning he had the three-story building of T. K. Barnes & Sons rented and had land ed one car load of business besides filling smaller orders not a few, and from the packing rooms the Kentucky Leaf Tobacco was activity. How is this Mr. Tabb? "I haven't time to mourn over my losses, they are heavy but greater the need for pushing my business. I am here right opposite my old stand until my building has been reconstructed at former sight when I will move back. Mr. Sterling is my house, my place of business, and here I expect to be until I die. You might say the people my business is running full and am buying whatever the farmer has to sell and supply the trade with feed, seed, and coal just as before the fire."

TRIPLE CHIEF

Nine years old; 16½ hands high; blood bay with black points, white in face as characteristic of Old Indian, tall well set; long ears; extra limbs and feet. Bred by Fletcher Cheatham, Carlisle, Ky. "Triple Chief" is a horse of finest finish; a Hackney in action, and full of speed.

TRIPLE CHIEF will make the season of 1903, at Sunnyvale, three and one-half miles from Mt. Sterling, on Grassy Field Turnpike, at $2500 for a Living Colt.

Money due when colt is foaled or mated, parted with, or bred to another horse. Lien on colt until service is paid.

TRIPLE CHIEF by Sims' Clark Chief 2110. First dam by Harrison's Chief, 2110; Second dam by Old Indian Chief, 2110; Third dam by Collier's Chief, 2110.

Sims' Clark Chief sire of Crozie, 2174, Tony Newell, 2119; First dam by Old Indian Chief, 2110; Second dam by Old Indian Chief, 2110; Third dam by Collier's Chief, 2110.

Students of Kentucky Harness Horses disagree as to the relative greatness of Harrison and his half-brother, Sims' Clark Chief (Old John), as producers. One or the other holds first place with no other contestant, save Old Indian Chief.

Triple Chief should settle the question for public service, representing Old John as sire, Harrison through his dam and his sire, Harrison through his dam and his sire, Harrison through his dam and his sire.

The intelligent breeder of to-day recognizes four essentials in the successful competition for honors and prices—individuality, action, size and speed. The farmer demands size for animals left at home. We feel, in offering Triple Chief for public service, that he has no equal in these essentials, nor could have if blood lines are a guarantee. He stands 16½ hands, bred by two dams 16 hands, and throws size, as his colts testify.

Old John is without a peer as the sire of harness horses, roadsters and coach horses. Harrison combines the above with a grace and finish that make him and his colts the show horses of the world. A span of geldings, sons of these two sires sold for $4,000.

Glorious Red Cloud, the $10,000 World Winner in the show ring, was by a son of Harrison, and his dam by an Indian. Montgomery Chief, the $5,000 product of our own country, is the result of the cross of Harrison's and Indian blood.

No other living sire offers these three coveted blood lines, Old John, Harrison and Indian. We are sure that Triple Chief will be crowned King of Kentucky for public service, his individuality, and his ancestry are his guarantee.

At the same place, his celebrated Black Jack, 2110, 16 hands, will make the season at $2,500. Terms same as Triple Chief.

Mares granted at 10 cents per day. Will not be responsible for accidents or escapes. Address: SHIRLEY MASON, Rural Route No. 1, Grassy, Ky.

Judge Mulligan's Famous Poem "IN KENTUCKY"

The moonlight (talpale) softest
In Kentucky;
The summer days come oft
In Kentucky;
Friendship is the strongest,
Love's light glows the brightest;
Yet, wrong is always wrong
In Kentucky.
Little beads bear the lightest
In Kentucky;
The home fire burns the brightest
In Kentucky;
White plumes are the loveliest,
Cards come out the nearest;
The pocket empties clearest
In Kentucky.
The sun shines ever brightest
In Kentucky;
The breezes whisper lightest
In Kentucky;
Hiss girls are the truest,
Hiss boys the truest;
Their little hearts are truest
In Kentucky.
Orators are the grandest
In Kentucky;
Officials are the blindest
In Kentucky;
Bore are all the best,
Danger ever highest,
And taxes at the highest
In Kentucky.
The bluegrass wave blest
In Kentucky;
Yet, bluegrass wave sweet (7)
In Kentucky;
Moonlight is the clearest,
By no means the dearest,
And yet, it sets the truest
In Kentucky.
The down notes are the saddest
In Kentucky;
The streams dance on the grassland
In Kentucky;
His pockets are the thickest,
Pistol hands the slickest,
The cylinder turn-sickest
In Kentucky.
The song birds are the truest
In Kentucky;
The thoroughbreds are the fleetest
In Kentucky;
Mountains tower proudest,
Thunder peals the loudest,
The landscape is the grandest—
And politics—the damnest
In Kentucky.

WITH APOTROPHIES—
The railroads are the finest
In Kentucky;
Passenger trains the best
In Kentucky;
If you wish to travel fast,
Live on the "steamboat" first and last.
You don't want your time to waste;
That's the "rail" that makes "the hash"

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow, Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

The general cry now is that the free pile system has resulted just as we always said it would, in converting our fine turnpikes into dirt roads. Here is how the Cynthiana Democrat sizes up the situation:

"In the destruction of the turnpike system is involved the destruction of the business interests of the city. The Fiscal Court has appropriated $14,000 for work on the roads this year. That sum will go a long ways if properly expended, and there is no reason to believe that the turnpike commissioners will not do their best in seeing that the greatest good is done the greatest number. In some places the roads are reported out through the bed rock. These places must be repaved up from the bed rock. All repairs should be thoroughly just as thorough as the former turnpike companies required. No contractor should be paid until he has done the exact things which the commissioners directed him to do. Every man should be held to a strict accountability for the thoroughness of his work, and it is the duty of every citizen who observes work carefully done to report the matter at once to the commissioners. Complaint on the streets will do no good. Complaint to the proper authorities and if necessary take them to the spot." Our country people will observe and think.

COURT OF APPEALS

Declares That Gov. Beckham's Eligibility Is Beyond the Committee.

That His Name Must go on the Ballot and That the Primary Is Legal.

"Under the facts, as shown, we are of opinion the primary was lawfully called."
"It must be understood that the only question decided is that the committee has no right to raise the question as to the eligibility of one who desires to become a candidate before the primary, and for that reason refuse to place his name upon the ballot."

The above sentences contain the gist of the two opinions rendered Wednesday by the Court of Appeals.

Judge Hobson delivered the opinion in the Meacham primary case, and Judge Paynter in the case of Young vs. Beckham. The opinions in full follow:

OPINION IN ELIGIBILITY CASE.

Court of Appeals of Kentucky. March 25, 1903.

Allie W. Young, et al. Appellants, vs. Appeal from Woodford Circuit Court.

J. C. W. Beckham, Appellee. Opinion of the court by Judge Paynter:

The purpose of this proceeding is to compel the Democratic Committee to place the name of the appellee, J. C. W. Beckham, on the ballot as a candidate for the office of Governor before the Democratic primary election called for May 9, 1903.

The question of his eligibility has been raised and the committee refuses to place his name upon the ballot. The question to be determined from the pleadings is whether the governing authority of the party have called a primary election, and if so (a) whether the statute authorizes the holding of a primary election to nominate candidates for State offices; (b), whether the committee can refuse to place his name upon the ballot, because they think he is ineligible to re-election; (c), whether by proceedings in mandamus the committee may be compelled to place his name upon the ballot used at the primary as a candidate for Governor.

The first question is easily disposed of. It is averred in the petition that the governing authority of the party has called a primary election and it is not denied by the answer; therefore, the court must proceed upon the idea that the primary has been called by the governing authority of the party.

Sections 1550 and 1565, inclusive, of Article 12, Chapter 41, Kentucky Statutes, embrace the law upon the subject of primary elections.

Section 1550 reads as follows: "A primary election, within the meaning of this article, and as used in this chapter, is an election held within the State, county, city, district or subdivision thereof, as the case may be, by the members of any political party, or by the voters of some political faith, for the purpose of nominating candidates for office."

Section 1565 reads as follows: "The provisions of this article shall apply to all primary elections held for the purpose of nominating candidates for State, county, district or municipal offices hereafter held in this Commonwealth, except those held in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two."

From these sections it is manifest that the Legislature intended to provide for a primary election for the nomination of State officers. Section 1565 expressly provides that the article shall apply to primary elections held for the purpose of nominating candidates for State, county, district or municipal offices.

A difficulty arises from the fact that the law is not definite and cer-

Cured

At 70 of Heart Disease Contracted

During Civil War—Veteran Grateful.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Effected Cure.

Heart disease is curable, but in people of advanced age it does not readily lend itself to ordinary treatment. There is, however, hope for all sufferers in Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which we know from watching hundreds of cases and from the letters of grateful sufferers, but cure where all else has failed. It is not a wonderful cure, but a blood tonic, a regulator of the heart's action and the most effective treatment ever formulated for improving the circulation of the blood.

"During the Civil War I contracted heart disease, and in 1864, while living in the grand old town of Lexington, Va., I felt so much worse, I left there with my wife to visit my sister-in-law, Mrs. T. A. Kirby, at Knoxville, Va. While I was soiling to anyone I never expected to live to return to the dear old town. On reaching Mrs. Kirby's she insisted I should try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I procured a few bottles of it at the Nervine and Tonic. After using one or two bottles, I could see no improvement, and I despaired of ever being better, but my faithful wife insisted on keeping it up, which I did. Improvement soon began to manifest and I took in all fifteen or sixteen bottles. I was restored to perfect health and while I am 70 years old, I am comparatively a boy. You see, we are benefited and I cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to suffering humanity."—J. L. SAUNDERS, Salem, Va.

tain as to how the result of a primary election shall be ascertained and certified to the Secretary of State for the purpose of having the names of the successful candidates placed by him upon the official ballot for the regular election.

When Section 1565 says that the article shall apply to all elections held for the purpose of nominating candidates for State, county, district or municipal offices, it must have meant that the committee or governing authority of the party can ascertain and certify the result of the primary held to nominate candidates for such offices to the Secretary of State, because it is provided in Section 1565 that the committee or governing authority of the party may order a primary election. In addition to that, Section 1563 provides that the committee or governing authority in the county or district are empowered to count the votes.

In view of Section 1565 making the article which includes Section 1563 applicable, we must read in that section the word State.

If the committee or governing authority can call and hold a primary election, the same authority can certify to the Secretary of State the names of the parties who are entitled to be placed upon the official ballot. This power is necessarily implied.

Some of the rules prescribed for the conduct of the primary are in violation of the statute. The committee should follow strictly the provisions of the statute regulating the holding of the primary election; unless this is done, the risk is taken that they may not be able to have those who are declared to be the nominees placed upon the ballot at the regular election. The court in Brown vs. Republican County Executive Committee, etc., 23 R. 2421, held that there can be no lawful primary, unless it is held as prescribed by the statute.

In this case we deem it unnecessary to point out wherein the rules of the primary differ from the provisions of the statute, presuming that the committee will conform its action to its provisions.

We are of the opinion that the committee had no right to raise the question of the appellee's eligibility to re-election to the office of Governor. The governing authority of the party has no right to determine who is eligible under the laws of the land to hold office. It can call primary elections and make proper rules for their government, but it has no right to say who is eligible to be a candidate before the primary. The persons who are entitled to vote at the primary are the ones to determine who should be selected as their candidate for a particular office.

If the committee can say who is and who is not eligible to be nominated as the party's candidate for office, they can on the very last day before the ballots are printed refuse to allow a person's name to go on the ballot upon the pretext that he is ineligible, and thus prevent his name from appearing upon the official ballot. They could thus destroy one's prospect to be nominated, for the rules of procedure in courts are necessarily such that no adequate relief could be afforded the party complaining. If at all, until after the primary election had been held.

If the committee or governing authority has the authority to decide the question as to who is eligible to hold an office or to be a candidate before a primary election, then they would have a discretion and judgment to exercise that could not be controlled by a mandamus. The most that could be done by such a writ would be to compel them to act upon the question.

The next question is, is a writ of mandamus the proper remedy in a case like this? Section 477 of the Civil Code of Practice provides:

"The writ of mandamus as granted in this chapter, is an order of a court of competent and original jurisdiction, commanding an executive or ministerial officer to perform an act, or omit to do an act, the performance or admission of which is enjoined by law; and is granted on a motion of the party aggrieved, or of the Commonwealth when the interest is affected."

It is urged that the committee or governing authority of a party are not executive or ministerial officers, therefore, the writ can not be issued against them. A primary election called by the committee or governing authority of a party is to be conducted under the statute law of the State regulating such elections. The Legislature has seen proper, as it were, to take charge of them and to secure fairness in the conduct of same, has provided penalties for the violation of the law. It is provided in Section 1563, Kentucky Statutes, that:

"Before entering upon the discharge of the duties set forth in this article, the committee or governing authority shall be sworn by some officer authorized by law to administer an oath to faithfully and honestly discharge the duties herein imposed; and the failure upon the part of any member of the committee or governing authority to discharge such duties faithfully and honestly shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and the person so offending shall, upon indictment and conviction in the Circuit Court of the county or district, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than sixty days and not more than one year."

A cursory reading of the section might make an impression upon the reader that this only required that the committee or governing authority should take this oath when organized to determine a contest, but a more careful reading of the section shows that it must be taken before entering upon the discharge of the duties set forth in this article. Many duties are required to be performed by the committee or governing authority of a party under the article. The article is composed of several sections in which these various duties are designated.

It must be understood that the only question decided is that the committee has no right to raise the question as to the eligibility of one who desires to become a candidate before the primary and for that reason refuse to place his name upon the ballot.

The judgment is affirmed.

OPINION IN MEACHAM CASE. Court of Appeal of Kentucky. March 25, 1903.

Chas. W. Meacham, Appellant, vs. Appeal from the Franklin Circuit Court.

Allie W. Young, et al. Appellees. Opinion of the court by Judge Hobson:

The appellant, a member of the Democratic party and of the State

Executive Committee of that party seeks to enjoin the holding of a Democratic primary election alleged to be called for May 9, 1903. This court, in the case of Beckham vs. Young, opinion delivered March 25, 1903, decided that the committee or governing authority of a political party in the State was authorized under Article 12, Chapter 41, General Statutes, to hold a primary election, to nominate candidates for State offices. If the committee or governing authority call the primary, then it would have to be held under the statute and the court has no jurisdiction to enjoin the holding of it. The court has no more right to enjoin the holding of a primary election, if called by the governing authorities of the party, than it would have to enjoin a regular election.

The calling of a primary is a party matter to be determined by the party authorities, and the court has no power to interfere with their action. It is a matter to be settled by the party and by the authorities of the party, and if complaint is made of the action of the party, it must be made to the proper party authorities.

Under the facts as shown, we are of opinion the primary was lawfully called. Judgment affirmed. White & Ray, Breckinridge & Shelby, for appellants.

L. McQuown, W. S. Pryor, for appellees.

By request of the Secretary of War Gov. Beckham has designated Adj. Gen. David R. Murray to cooperate with Brigadier Gen. F. C. Ainsworth, of the U. S. War Department, upon whom has recently, by an act of Congress, placed the work of compiling the Confederate war records. The Adjutant General has already, under act of the General Assembly and through the assistance of the late Capt. Ed. Porter Thompson, compiled much of this record in Kentucky, and the co-operation of the State with the National Department in this matter will enable both to make a record complete in all its details.

Resolutions On the Death of Mrs. Mary L. McClelland.

WHEREAS, The hand of Providence has removed our beloved sister, Mrs. Mary L. McClelland, from the scene of her temporal labors and from our Missionary Society, and, in view of the loss we have sustained by the death of our friend and associate, and of the still greater loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her, be it

Resolved, That we deeply mourn her removal from our midst and sincerely regret the loss of her faithful services as a co-laborer in our work for the Master, taking refuge in the thought, however, that after having ended her earthly strife she has at last joined the blessed society of the redeemed in heaven.

Resolved, That we tenderly condole with her family in their hour of trial and affliction and commend them to the keeping of Him who looks with pitying eye upon the sorrowing.

Resolved, That above resolutions be published in the Advocate and that a copy thereof be spread upon the minutes of our society and another be sent to the family as a token of our love and regard for this dear Christian woman, and the interest felt by the society for whose strength and growth it was her pleasure to labor.

Easter 1903

All the world's a stage and every man must dress for the part he plays.

EASTER

Is the Great Spring Matinee!

A day set apart, as it were, for the showing of the tailor's skill, the weavers' art, during the long winter months that have been torn from the calendar and have elapsed into the past of other days.

The weavers of the old world have been working night and day blending colors, arranging combinations for the tailors of the new world, who have lost no time 'hemselves changing styles, adding here and subtracting there from the things of the past, all for the betterment of men's clothing of today. No country has better dressed men than ours; no State has better dressed men than ours, and no towns have better dressed men than those of the Blue Grass of Kentucky, and we may add in no town of Mt. Sterling's size will you find a better stock than the one we show for Spring.

Walsh Bros.

have long been recognized leaders in their line for style, quality and low prices. Never before were the styles so sensible or pretty as today; never could we boast of so large or well selected stock as now. We warn you not to spend a penny for Men's, Boys' or Children's Clothing, Hats, Caps, Shoes or Furnishings until you have seen ours.

MOTHERS,

Don't you buy a suit for your boy until you see our styles. We sell Hackett Cathart's Boys' and Children's Clothing, best in the world; among them many new and original styles in Norfolk with pleats running over the shoulders; Norfolk Yoke and Norfolk regular styles; also the new Yale cut coat, pants and vest suits for boys and just like the men's, peddled shoulders and hair cloth fronts. Also the Hopkins Sailor Norfolk from 3 to 8 years. The most complete line of Children's Clothing it has ever been our pleasure to show.

FOUR IN ONE

KNOX and STETSON HATS here in greater variety than ever before. We are showing the Cotta 3-inch one, the Telescope, the Panama and new Alpine styles in all the latest colors. Here you will find by far the best line of Hats in Ky. See agents for KNOX and STETSON'S STUFF HATS.

To the Young Man who really wants up-to-date, tailor-made but ready-to-wear clothes, we suggest the following styles of the famous Stein-Bloch and Hanburger Bros. makes:

The Yale 3-button sack; the English 3-button sack; the 3-button cutaway sack; the 4-button regular sack.

These suits have the new Gibson vest, full hip or regular cut trousers, with Winston shoulders, hair cloth fronts.

These suits come in blacks, blues and all the latest novelties. No other store shows such clothes. Suits from $5.00 to $25

Leave your measure here. Suits from $15 to $35.

Fancy Vests.

We are showing the Gibson new style pointed vests in white, little checks, plaids, and self stripes. Also some late novelties in dark colors of Fan-toi Silk. Our prices range from $1 to $15.

DEATHS.

BORLEY.—Capt. Jack Borley of Stanford died 80 years, is dead. He is the father of ex-Postmaster Borley, of Paris.

TANNER.—Mrs. David Tanner, of Clark county, died Tuesday of last week from injuries received Monday by a runaway.

CLANCY.—John Clancy, aged 65, died suddenly on Tuesday, March 24, 1903, at the home of his sister Mrs. Pat King, on Paris pike. The funeral service was held at the residence by Rev. De Waegeneare and the burial was in this city. He leaves a wife and children. He was a brother of Mrs. John Peuter, of this city.

BERKLEY.—Mr. Harrison Berkley departed this life on last Thursday, March 26th, at his home in this county. Funeral services were conducted at family residence on Saturday morning by Rev. A. E. Carnahan, assisted by Rev. R. M. Lee, burial in the Lubergud graveyard. He was born near Boonsboro, Clark county, Nov. 2, 1819, and was the son of John and Nancy Orear Berkley, who came to this State from Va., in 1802. He was one of 11 children, three of whom, George W. Berkley, Mrs. Nannie White and Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens, survive him. He was married to Miss Eliza Evans in 1841. They had nine children, four of whom, Wm. Berkley and Mrs. Nannie White, of this county, and Jas and Edward, of Oklahoma, are living. He had been a member of the Methodist Church for 40 years and of the Mt. Sterling Methodist Church for 6 years. He was a farmer all of his life and in addition had contract for carrying U. S. Mail from Mt. Sterling to Lousia. He was a good citizen and had always voted the Democratic ticket being firmly fixed in its doctrine. His neighbors had high regard for his counsel and he was ever ready to bestow charity. He had been confined to his room for months and anxiously waited for the master to summons him home. Thus ends the life of one of Montgomery best citizens at the ripe age of 83 years.

COLEMAN.—The announcement of the death of Lindsey H. Coleman was no surprise to his friends. After many months of sickness the end came on Saturday afternoon at 5:10 o'clock, March 28, 1903. He was the youngest child of Mr. Mat Coleman (deceased) and Mrs. Elizabeth Coleman. He was born in this city August 16, 1873, hence was in his 30th year. He was married to Miss Mattie Wilson, of this city, November 6, 1895. To them were born two children—a son and daughter. He united with the Southern Presbyterian Church in 1891 under the ministry of Rev. I. S. McElroy. The funeral service was conducted on Monday morning at the church by his pastor, Rev. Jno. Abbott, assisted by Rev. H. D. Clark and the burial was in Macpelah. His life has been spent in this city, except for a few months in Chicago and Louisville. From the latter city he went to western health resorts hoping to be improved, but in vain. He returned to this city in April of last year and has since that time been too feeble to attend to business. At the home of his mother he has received from mother, wife and friends the ministrations of love. The struggle against disease has been heroic and long, and although his days have been cut short, he has been blessed by his experience. Recently during one of our social calls, he asked that we read from a favorite book a chapter which told of the blessings of sickness. With animated spirit he told of the great blessing that had come to him during his long confinement and said that under no circumstances would he be willing to be where he was (referring to spiritual matters) prior to his sickness. If God so willed he was ready to go. He is not the only life blessed by these many months of loving service, patient suffering. To his mother, wife and brothers, George and John, we extend our sympathy.

STROSSMAN.—On Oct. 13, 1840, there was born in this city to Dillard Hazelrigg and wife, a daughter, Martha.

Reared in a christian home her life was an embodiment of christian graces, and thus she grew into that type of womanhood which gives stability and real worth to a community. While visiting in Lavenworth, Kan., she was united in marriage to Wm. H. Strossman, Dec. 10, 1871. They lived for four years in St. Louis, then removed to this county where they spent five years, then they moved to Kansas City for three years, and returned to this city where they have since lived. Of the two children born to them only one is living, W. H. Strossman Jr., who with his father is in the insurance business. For several weeks she had been in feeble health. Her friends had hoped that she would be spared for other years of helpful service, but He who doeth all things well for His children willled otherwise, and on Friday morning, March 27, 1903, at 6 o'clock He called her in her 63 year to the home above. From childhood she had been a follower of the Christ. In this city she had been constant and earnest in Christian service. Gifted in song she had been a leader in the devotions of her brethren, and when death had entered their homes or the homes of many others her voice had soothed the troubled souls and lifted thought and love heavenward. She was a prominent member of the C. W. B. M., seldom missing the meeting. A kind, affectionate wife, mother, and friend who did well her part, has been called from the associations, service and joys of the earth life to the reunion of loved ones, the fuller knowledge and joys of the home eternal where mansions are prepared for the children of God. She leaves a brother, J. D. Hazelrigg, of this city, a sister, Mrs. M. S. Randall, of Chicago, Kan., a husband and son and many friends who pay loving tribute to her modest, helpful life, and who while shedding tears because of her going yet weep not as those who have no hope. The funeral service was held at the Christian church by her pastor, Rev. H. D. Clark, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the body was laid to rest in beautiful Macpelah near to the home of her childhood. To the family we extend our sympathy.
